

Offer Up

The Features

Cover your head.
Waiting for a big one to fall.
You can hide all you like,
Doesn't really matter at all.

When you offer up your heart,
Well you're bound to lose your mind.

Stand in the way,
Heart on display. What a sight!
Laugh all you want.
Ain't funny long when you find
Bombs are never taken too easy.
Fear is never too far away.
Still you never tend to run out of reasons
So you

Offer up your heart
Well you're bound to lose your mind,
And another one falls
And another one falls
Then another one

Offer up your heart
Well you're bound to lose your mind
