

Decide

The Feelies

Those were the days
I remember so well
What ever happens
You can't ever tell
Waiting for someone
To arrive
Those old habits, yeah,
They never die
Nobody's problem, baby,
But your own
Held for ransom
Since the day you were born

Somebody always
Makes you mad
Never remember
But you wish you had
Think about treating
Everybody kind
Spread all the love, yeah,
That you find
Open your heart
And you won't be blind
Open your eyes
And you'll find the light
Find the light
Find the light

Decide
What side
You're on
