

I Just Do

The Feeling

He said: "I'm not an asshole"
Something of course only an asshole would say
And I said: "I'm not stupid"
Something only someone stupid would say
The game is on but I can't see the board
And are there any rules here anymore?

I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I just do

He's not afraid of drowning
He said a sinking ship's his spiritual home
"Well, shut up and start talking" I said
"You're saying things that I don't need to know"
Tell me, are you gonna be my friend?
'Cause I don't need another one of them

I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I just do

So throw me in the swim
Wash away the warmth
Make me cool, as in
Make me nonchalant

Maybe you'll forget me
Or maybe you'll see what a fool you've been
The thing that most upsets me
Is the truth is probably halfway in between
The game's still on, but noone's keeping score
And I don't wanna play it anymore

I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I just do

So throw me in the swim
Clean away the worms
I sing a little hint
As you wash me in the fount, yeah

Throw me in the swim
Scrub away the sorrow
Today I didn't win
I hope I win tomorrow

I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I wish I didn't feel the way I do
I just do

I just do

Just do

I want you know it
I want you know it
I want you know it, yeah

I want you know it
I want you know it
I want you know it, yeah

I want you know it
I want you know it
I want you know it, yeah

I want you know it
I want you know it
I want you know it, yeah
