

Make Or Break

The Firm

You got me so I don't know my left from my right
Its getting kind of disconcerting
You got me I can't tell the shade from the light
But the one thing I know is for certain

Baby you got to make you're mind up
Or you and I are going to wind up
Out of love and in confusion
Doin' time for love's illusion
We gotta make up or break up
Yeah yeah yeah

You got me so I can't tell my right from my wrong
It hurts me and I know you're hurting
You got me so I don't know if I'm coming or going
But the one thing I know that is for certain

Is baby you gotta make your mind up
Or you and I are going to wind up
Out of love
And in confusion
Doin' time for love's illusion
We gotta make up or break up
Yeah yeah yeah

Gotta make up or break up
Yeah yeah yeah
Got to make up or break up
Yeah yeah yeah
You got to give me freedom
Oh a little understanding
You got to give me freedom,
On and a little understanding baby
Now don't you know I need your love?
But don't fence me in, no!
Don't you know I need your love?
Give me a little freedom

I can toss it around
Make or break up baby

We got to make up or break up, now
