

Dream Of A Lifetime

The Flamingos

You're the dream of a lifetime
Too sweet to tell it all things right
You're everything I ever hoped for Sweetheart, will you be mine

You're the dream of a lifetime
With voice like mission bells that chime
And eyes that grow in sweet surrender
Two lips are sweet as wine

Heaven must have sent you
Dear, when I was feeling lonely, sad and blue
Will you be my lover, I don't want another
Please believe me, do

You're the dream of a lifetime
You'll change the autumn days to spring
With you my life would be complete, dear
My heart will always sing

You're the dream of a lifetime
You'll change the autumn days to spring
With you my life would be complete, dear
My heart will always sing
