

Get Out Of My Face

The Flatliners

Think about this for a second
Why don't you leave me the fuck alone?
Because there's nothing left to do
Why don't you just breathe for a minute?
Everything will come back to life
But there's nothing here for you

You say life has no meaning
Well I'd like to contradict you
Your thoughts are all wrong
You have an awful point of view
Your opinion doesn't matter to me
To me

Maybe you should walk a little slower
Who knows what is waiting there for you
Do you? Do you?
Maybe you should get out of my face
I don't want to be stupid just like you
Like you, like you

Get out!
Get out!
Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey!
Get out!
Get the fuck out!
Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey!
