

Just This Once

The Flower Kings

Shut up just this one
Let's go where the river runs
Maybe you can change the world
But there's a lot you still have to learn

You're a child and I'm a man
There's so much you don't understand
I'm a little wiser see
I got this taste of eternity

I've got this feeling inside
Your ego has taken you for a ride
Just once you're on top of it all
"The harder they come, the harder they fall"

It's a shame you're wasting time
So many fools waiting down the line
Everyone wants to rule the world
But there's a lot they haven't heard
You're young, you're beautiful
Still it ain't nothing but fools gold
I'm a little wiser see
I'm concerned about eternity

I've got this feeling inside
Go talk to the King, he's got nothing to hide
