

A Fistfight For Our Fathers

The Forecast

avoid disaster!
we must stop sleeping we better wake up before we start drowning you know we lie to ourselves my ears are ringing from all your screaming you better face it before you've wasted away wake up and start singing hit them in the heart you're always running trying not to stumble but you have to wait it so lets not lie this time
