

You're My Needle

The Forecast

i am the vein you can't expose can you live with what you've chosen and i'm choosing to sleep it off another week pray thy lord my soul to keep and i'm keeping this you are the habit i can't break the pill i said I'd never take the slip between the cup and lip the feeling I can't forget and i'll beg forgiveness
