

Havoc

The Foreshadowing

Don't you live if you can't sacrifice
Don't you plead to someone for more time
Don't forget that people need to fight
And we can give them all they desire

You shouldn't run without a weapon
Without a fire
To keep alive in your hand

We will arrive to find a land to overwhelm
To chase the dark and choose to live forever

Don't you scream until you're bound to shoot
Of your abilities you give us proof
We expect you set the world on fire
No failure. No compromise

You shouldn't run without a weapon
Without a fire
To keep alive in your hand

We will arrive to find a land to overwhelm
To chase the dark and choose to live forever

Gloria in excelsis Deo
Et in terra Infernum

Gloria in excelsis Deo
Et in Terra Infernum laudamus te
