Reverie Is a Tyrant

The Foreshadowing

Absolve domine animas omnium Fidelium defunctorum

Sleep with the nightmare of endless time That runs more than you And there's nothing to do Playing with ghosts coming back home Time pressure dictates The rules of the games

Oh, my reverie is a tyrant A tyrant inside me Leads my memories And the future is scary like me

Oh, my reverie Is a future more scary than me
