

Mental Degeneration

The Forsaken

A caged existence, a war in silence
Two minds counteracting, trading my fear
The void of my essence, a silence within Broken, seduced by the profile they hold
The secrets within my bloodline
My pride - my dominion controlled
Within the circles of sanity
Insanity becomes justice - no remorse
He who knows the truth, my heart's black god
The predator in thought, my mentor in reality
The sweet taste of blood, the night's sacrifice
I feel your tears transparent on my skin
You are the first to embrace my sanity
The secrets within my bloodline
My pride - my suicidal servant
Within the circles of insanity
Sanity becomes remorse - no justice
Justify - my pride...
I was devoured and sodomized
The kisses embraced me

You changed me...sealed me...
The truth's inheritance...justified...justified...
Abused and isolated - buried alive
Yearning for my freedom
You changed me... sealed me...
The truth's inheritance... justified...justified...
Abused and isolated - buried alive
Yearning for my freedom
You changed me...sealed me...
The truth's inheritance...justified...justified...
The blight innocence of my heart
Knowledge of the broken seals
Denial has become my alliance
Truth is NOT remorse, just facts
The secrets within my bloodline
My pride - rapture is my profile
Circles of insanity entangle my sanity
My pride is justice - no remorse
He who knows the truth, my hearts black god
The predator in thought, my mentor in reality
The mentor of my obscurity
My truth, my justice, my testament..
