

1. Its like they always say the truth is coming out driving us away your headlights heading south you turn your head to leave cause there's nothing here for you anymore but I am not afraid to stay

R: Got no need for the bible its all in here its all in here and all I need for my survival is what you say is what you say

2. I told you once, twice somewhere in the tunnel there's a light that shines for me to brighten up the darkest place and watch as the world goes burning to the ground turn back she said
"I just want to go over there and check it out"

R: I've got no need for the bible
it's all in here it's all in here
is hollocaine is hollocaine

it's all in here it's all in here
