

Sideways Down

The Frames

1. Maybe I should just move along but you know I'd draw blood if that's what you want

You found someone who makes you laugh who'd stick around but that's not what you want

2. You slipped at the start and dragged the whole thing sideways down everybody fucks up it's just something that's been going round

And you found someone who said he'd stay who'd give it all but that's not good enough

R: You're standing alone
you're living alone cause you don't know what you want and you're living alone and you're wondering now, cause you don't know what you've done

3. Maybe I should just disappear for now then maybe you could see a little clearer now

And you found some one who makes you laugh who promised you he'd never let you down

And you blame it on your broken heart but everyone who reaches out gets stung

R: You're standing alone...
