

Oh Scarlett

The Fratellis

Oh, Scarlett
make my day
Oh, Scarlett
won't you look my way I'll be hanging on your every word it's not obscene - it's just absurd all the kings and queens adore ya they can't love ya quite like me
Oh, Scarlett
I'm your flame
I'm your fire
Oh, Scarlett
I'm a dangerous liar
I swear before this night is through I'll sweep the stars from under you and all the strays and silhouettes will call your name until the blue light starts to fade on all the girls on the parade and I'll come pleading by your gate how long does a poor boy have to wait to put the pieces of your heart together again
Oh, Scarlett
let me try let me fail
Oh, Scarlett
make me frightened and pale I'll be your desert wind your city street
I'll make your days and nights complete and all the stars in heaven will shine if you would just be mine
