

You Do You Don't

The Friday Night Boys

The first time, I won't regret..
One look into your eyes, & I'll never forget..
You're not about to jump right into this tonight..
I'm wondering, just what to do..
Every single second in the room with you..
I can't talk you over to win you over here tonight..

So open your eyes, don't say goodnight..
I'm wondering why, alone tonight.. I'll just let it go, for you
I'm letting you down, you were just hiding it so well..
You're giving me no sign, no interest, no you don't really want this, you don't really want this..

Right now.. Are you gonna try to save yourself..?
I bet you're so sick of hearing it, but you don't really want t his, you don't really want this now..

It's so hard to get, Is that what it's gonna be,
Sitting down not even looking at me.. I hope forever,
I don't remember, this tonight..
So out the door & gone away, running so fast through the pouring rain.. gone forever, so much better.. here tonight.

So open your eyes, don't say goodnight..
I'm wondering why, alone tonight.. I'll just let it go, for you
I'm letting you down, you were just hiding it so well..
You're giving me no sign, no interest, no you don't really want
this, you don't really want this..

Right now.. Are you gonna try to save yourself..?
I bet you're so sick of hearing it, but you don't really want t his, you don't really want this now..

I'd throw it all away for you, if you took another look, you'd be back so soon.. All alone, dark cold night.. Wrapped around.. you better hold on tight..

Down, you were just hiding it so well..
You're giving me no sign, no interest, no you don't really want this.. So Right now.. Are you gonna try to save yourself..?
I bet you're so sick of hearing it, but you don't really want t his..

You're giving me no sign, no interest, no you don't really want
