

With you on top of me,
And me underneath you.
I bet we'll go 100 miles an hour
Through the ceiling
Cause I am numb
I am numb to the feeling
Looking for that sexual healing

Cause our love's the only thing that could matter
Take me up and up and up like a ladder
Cause our love's the only thing that could matter
Take me up and up like a ladder

Yeah maybe that could be my thing, what do ya think?
I'm talking two young lovers and half priced drinks
I could fight the rainclouds in your life
Every day, every night.

Smashing bottles and stepping on glass
Has never felt so good in the past
I'm only human with my flaws
Just a fool without a cause
With you grinding on me
And me grinding back on you
I bet we look beautiful
Slip sliding on the dance floor

Cause our love's the only thing that could matter
Take me up and up and up like a ladder
Our love's the only thing that could matter
Take me up and up like a ladder

Yeah maybe that could be your thing, what do ya think?
I'm talking two young lovers and half priced drinks
I could fight the rainclouds in your life
Every day, every night.

Yeah maybe that could be your thing, what do ya think?
I'm talking two young lovers and half priced drinks
I could fight the rainclouds in your life
Every day, every night.

Cause our love's the only thing that could matter
Take me up and up like a ladder.

Yeah maybe that could be your thing, what do ya think?
I'm talking two young lovers and half priced drinks
I could fight the rainclouds in your life
Every day, every night.

Yeah maybe that could be your thing, what do ya think?
I'm talking two young lovers and half priced drinks
I could be the rainbow in your sky
Shooting stars above you every night.
