

The Distance That I Fell

The Front Bottoms

if you're uncomfortable, i could take my clothes off too.
we could go back to the party
or we could stay up in your room.
and i should hug my friends more than i do.
it's unfortunate, my attitude, i need more elbow room.

and when i quit, when it's all over and done with,
you'll be the first person i tell.
it's such a bunch of bullshit, you're such a fucking
hypocrite.
you'll be the distance that i fell, the distance that i
fell.

i should know more by now, but i'm learning as i go.
i've got so many questions, but if i ask, i'll never know.
and i should wash my hair more than i do.
it's a consequence in a living room from the windows i look through.

when i quit, when it's all over and done with,
you'll be the first person i tell.
it's such a bunch of bullshit, you're such a fucking
hypocrite.
you'll be the distance that i fell, the distance that i
fell.

when i quit, when it's all over and done with,
you'll be the first person i tell.
it's such a bunch of bullshit; you're such a bunch of hypocrites.
you'll be the distance that i fell, the distance that i
fell.
