

The Crasher

The Frustrators

I'm gonna be a plastic tree a character transparency I figured out I'm fitting in nobody will notice me here you know me don't know me the crasher familiar face without a trace a tag-along and then I'm gone a camera flash I'm in the back

nobody will notice me here

I'll kiss the bride I'll take the cake I'll catch the flowers with super powers invisible you'll never see nobody will notice me here
