

We Need To Talk (it's Not You, It's Us)

The Frustrators

We're in love with you all
You've been the best crowd so far
It's time to break up with everybody
Time to sever and let go
It breaks our heart
That this show can't last forever
And so after the show
You must let go
You'll just break our hearts
When the show starts
You've got to let go
And we'll miss you...
But you're out of control
Yeah
Don't make this any
Any harder than it has to
Grab your backpacks and just go
We know that next week
That you'll be listening
To some other punk band
And you'll probably
Go to their show
That's why we're through
Just remember
We broke up with you
