Radio Heart

The Futureheads

I've been waiting by the radio for someone like you But the people that are calling in today are few and far betwee n You were listening Their word are... the syllables slow But ever day I have to call into this show Last week I decided to give it a go I caght your ear when I said

"I'm a man who sits at his desk So I guess I've got nothing to lose at this request I want a girl who doesn't like to dress to impress A girl with a radio heart A girl with a radio heart We've never met but we've never been apart A girl with a radio heart"

I took a risk and gambled on a voice I didn't know Turned up my lonely radio I leave my job, sell what I own For someone who knows what the radio knows Expose what the radio knows I've been waiting by the radio for so long Then you tuned in, not listening Then I caught your ear when I said
