

One Stones Throw From A Riot

The Gadjits

To all the people who taught me honesty by antonym
And grown up rules so lean cause you been starving them
It's all in how you look and i feel like a million bucks
Perhaps a fuck up i'm a cut above the other fucks

Tell me more
The older i get
It scares me awake
The more i can take

One stone's throw from a riot

I want to clense my self of microbes
I want to avail myself of titles
I keep waiting for a city to burn and unlearn

I want to testify
Got a lot to say about it baby
I want to tell you why
To make sure you go down for a long long time
