

Touchdown

The Game

When I touchdown
That California feeling's in the atmosphere
You know, you know, you know
When I touchdown
It's wall to wall with sexy ladies up in here
When I touchdown

Kick the Roberto Cavalli's off and lets talk sex
Let me whisper in your ear how you like your sex
Should I unzip your dress?
Step on out girl and tell me what's next
Do you love me? Yes
Do you want me? Yes
Then let me rub this oil all on your flesh
Take you out of them Vicky's make you forget about your ex
Let me spray this wipe cream on your chest
I go downtown, you go downtown next
Unstrap my bulletproof vest
Take two steps back and just flex
And by now you got to be wet
Like the ocean after the sun sets
I'ts over, climb up on my chest
I wore that ass out
Girl just rest

When I touchdown
That California feeling's in the atmosphere
You know, you know, you know
When I touchdown
It's wall to wall with sexy ladies up in here
When I touchdown

When I step up in the club
You know it's going down in here tonight
Put that Belvedere on ice
Let me know how you feel
Girl is it real girl?
Just make sure you understand
When I put this in your hand
It's so real, so real, so for real
Candy rain drippin' down your window
Close the curtains and take off your clothes
I'll make you say ooo ooo ooo
(When I touch, when I touch)

When I touchdown
That California feeling's in the atmosphere
You know, you know, you know
When I touchdown
It's wall to wall with sexy ladies up in here
Touchdown

There she goes again talking all that trash
Girl stop playing I tapped that ass
We can go real slow or do it fast
Just like I thought you ran out of gas
And girl you like the new S class

Every time I look at you I wanna smash
Get inside you and mash
You drive me crazy girl I can just crash
Jump in your pool and splash
Then slow it down like an hour glass
Turn around girl look at that ass
Beautiful as an Eli Manning pass
Round two, let's roll some grass
Get high, think about it then laugh
I wanna turn you on let me pop your tags
You so fly I wanna check your bags

When I touchdown
That California feeling's in the atmosphere
You know, you know, you know, ahh
When I touchdown
It's wall to wall with sexy ladies up in here
When I touchdown
