

Castle Of The Devil

The Gates of Slumber

Secrets forbidden by the Lord
The Devil provided his work
Name of the second son will be his Oh this doomed world will kneel

The Sacrifice came undone
by this holy doom dog
The offering must be made
blood of a virgin child
For eternal life I gave
by his promise
But that bastard Kane

Goat of Mendes in the mud
Father found his true god
Wealth and fame upon his land
Curse of the wolf now bestowed.

The Sacrifice came undone
by this holy doom dog
The offering must be made
blood of a virgin child
For eternal life I gave
by his promise
But that bastard Kane

I entangled in the thorns
I bore this cross
I the hand of the divine
On this solemn night

I drank the wine
That was rotten on the vine
Said the whore to the thief
But that bastard Kane
