

Another Day

The Gathering

Suddenly I awake
A strange man knows my name
Heat takes my mind
What is happening to me?

The revival - True messiah
Now that you are saved a legend lives
The revival
We take you to the gate to wash your brain
True messiah

Still I cannot speak
My throat is dry as ice
A tear leaves my eye
I know that I am saved

Remember what has happened
You're older than the earth
Six hundred years
A living history

A vision in my brain takes me back
To places that I know I was before

The revival - true messiah
Now that you are saved a legend lives
The revival
We take you to the gate to wash your brain
True messiah

Sleeping through the ages
The past rests within
Soon to be recovered
By emptying my mind

Remember what has happened
You're older than the earth
Six hundred years
A living history

A vision in my brain takes me back
To places that I know I was before
