The Gathering

People drifting from a distance
People arrive and depart

Fall into an area

People appear through the twilight
See them come in through the cold

Come into an area

Approaching me, approaching you
Could this areas here feel now approaching to

Here they come, here they go

There's a chance you may need somewhere sometime

People are moving to music
Dancing the music profane

Fell into an area

People drifting from the distance
People arrive and depart

Fall into an area

Into an area...
