

Bad Movie Scene

The Gathering

Why did I ever think life is about to go on
in a minute

And did I ever see
in a minute
Life never goes on Those are empty words

This is the back door
that will lead you out to find the alley of your dreams They try and tell you They're just empty words

It's just a frame of mind

This is the back door
Leading me out Sweep you away We'll never go on We're used to these empty words

It's just a frame of mind
