Bad Movie Scene

The Gathering

Why did I ever think life is about to go on in a minute

And did I ever see life is about to go on in a minute Life never goes on Those are empty words

This is the back door that will lead you out to find the alley of your dreams They try and tell you They're just empty words

It's just a frame of mind

This is the back door
Leading me out
Sweep you away
We'll never go on
We're used to these empty words

It's just a frame of mind
