

Saturnine

The Gathering

The day you went away
You had to screw me over I guess you didn't know all the stuff you left me with is way too much to handle
But I guess you don't care

You don't need to preach
you don't have to love me, all the time

Whatever on earth possessed you to make this bold decision I guess you don't need me
While whispering those words I cried like a baby hoping you would care

You don't need to preach

You don't have to preach all the time
