

I'm Still Believing

The Generators

I'm down but I'm not out
I'm lost with a chance still to be found
I'm cold but I'm not dead
This cat's got a few lives left
I'm all out of reasons
But I'll still find a good excuse
I'm in the last round now
Nothing left for me to loose

You can mess with my pride
You can say all you like
But I'm not falling down this time without a fight
Not without a fight

Been around the block
Maybe one too many times
I admit I was wrong
Maybe more than I was right
I struggled so hard
Like so many others
Swinging away towards a better day
For some good to be discovered

You can mess with my pride
You can say all you like
But I won't be falling down this time without a fight
Not without a fight

I'm still believing
I'll find a meaning
The odds aren't on my side
But the contender has arrived
I'm still believing
Practice what I'm preaching
So you go for yours
And I'll go for mine

My whole lifetime
I've always known what I was up against
But I always knew I could make a break
As this thing came down on stretch
I remain here giving it
Giving it all I got
I might be up against the ropes
But I'm bound to land a shot

I'm still believing
I'll find a meaning
The odds aren't on my side
But the contender has arrived
I'm still believing
Practice what I'm preaching
So you go for yours
