Nothing To Lose

The Generators

i've live this lifetime walking a fine line
count my blessings,
learned my lessons
i'm still alive
i watched some not get up after tapping the main line i watched some dragged away to go do their time

your all alone,
you turn to stone,
you trust no one
it really doesn't matter if tomorrow even comes
i know your pain lord
because i've felt mine
you'll pay the consequence
if you cross the line

chorus:

when you got nothing you got, nothing to lose (X4)

if you cross this line
