

Can't Stand The Pain

The Georgia Satellites

Can't stand the pain
can't stand the pain, anymore
can't stand the pain
can't stand the pain, anymore

Well I'm lookin' for you baby and I don't know why everything about you makes me wanna cry I can't lose, I can't win livin' in the middle once again yeah again and again

can't stand the pain, anymore
can't stand the pain
can't stand the pain, anymore

Well I'm dreamin' bout you baby each and every day try and wash my head out of the things you say I can't lose, you can't win
livin' in the middle once again
yeah again and again

Well I'm lookin' for you baby and I don't know why
everything about you makes me wanna cry

can't stand the pain, anymore
can't stand the pain
can't stand the pain, anymore
can't stand the pain
can't stand the pain, anymore no more, yeah, yeah, yeah
