

Coming Home

The Getaway Plan

If the truth is hard to carry,
And you feel like letting go.
Open up your heart, open up your mind.
If you feel a little weary,
And you hold a heavy soul.
Open up your heart, open up your mind.

I can't believe I'm coming home.
I can't believe I'm coming home.
I can't believe I'm coming,
With all of you here by my side.

Imagine we are older.
It's easy if you try.
Open up your heart, open up your mind.
And if only we were wiser,
And time was on our side.
Open up your heart, open up your mind.

I can't believe I'm coming home.
I can't believe I'm coming home.
I can't believe I'm coming,
With all of you here by my side.

But wait, oh it's been so long now.
Would somebody please help me get to where I'm going.
And no, I'm so much stronger now.
I'm finally where I belong.

I can't believe I'm coming home
I can't believe I'm coming back home
