

Melophobia

The Getaway Plan

It's haunting; it feels so close to me
You're floating, and I can barely swim

It's been this way for oh so long
You'd think I'd feel complete
I'm getting tired, I'm getting bored
Cuz' I'll never find the key
I'm sinking fast, into the sea
There's no time for one more drink
I tried to make my way back out
But you're not a me

It gets so hard
It gets so hard
But we'll all keep singing
It gets so hard
It gets so hard
To breathe
But we'll all keep singing

If you open your mind (just maybe)
Who knows just what you will find (just maybe)
If you don't open your head
Then this could be our last breath

It gets so hard
It gets so hard
But we'll all keep singing
It gets so hard
It gets so hard
To breathe
But we'll all keep singing

If you open your mind
Who knows just what you will find
But then I'll meet I'll always be
At the bottom of the sea

We run (5x)
