

Straight from these arms, slip the unsurprising victims.
Down, comes the sun, in an uninspiring fashion.

You'd never let me cut to the chase baby,
because i will not let go this easy

Show me how it came to be this way, we can't find a way out, this time
It's a fucking nightmare

You'd never let me cut to the chase baby,
because i will not let go this easy

You're putting me to shame. [x2]
And if you love me, come in and set this place on fire.
Stop taking notes and lock your doors, paint the walls your favourite color
You know you're right in here

You'd never let me cut to the chase baby,
because i will not let go this easy
