

Not Afraid To Fight

The Gladiators

I won't give up, hey I won't give up this fight
Said I'm not running away from reality
I'm, not afraid, hey to fight for what is right
'Cause very soon, I know I'll be a winner

Life today, we know is not a bed of roses
Sit down and contemplate, come solve this problem
Every man can be a star if he got good aim
So I'm positive I'll overcome this struggle

I said, I won't give up, I won't give up this fight
I said, I won't give up, I won't give up this fight
Oh no, no, no, no, no, no, no....
