The Go-Betweens

in search of a new voice you burnt all your lyrics and flew to a new town "one of the has beens" that was your phrase but what about show-biz? that way that way that way in my appartment six white horses wood turns electric inspired by shadows driven by tears you won't rest, till you're back on the boards that way that way that way or nothing at all I hear it's cold now the worst one on record hope that you keep warm I guess I'll be leaving now is the best time on the Atlantic we'll all climb that way that way that way or nothing at all it's only time away
