

Here You Are

The Go-Go's

Such a hard life lesson it's so strange
Never trusting things will be okay
But even if you leave
Nothing's gonna change

If you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you are here you are

Fall down screw up get up run away
I know what's behind the things you do and say
So just look at me
And I'll show you what I see

When you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you are here you are

The love you seek
The love you own
Is it so fleeting?
Are we really all just alone?
This moment in space and time
Is all that we can know

If you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you are here you are
When you lose control
And burn a bridge too far
No matter where you go
Here you are
In my heart
Here you are
