(Ready, ready?)

I heard a knock at the door
It's mama calling my name
She said get up off the floor
I heard her going insane
She said your friend's on the phone
I said to her, can it wait?
But then she started to moan
No time, cos I'm running late

Nobody's ever gonna, I do just what I wanna I'm bad and I'm not sorry And you will never stop me

No you will never stop me

Nobody's ever gonna
