

Just Like You (the Godfathers)

The Godfathers

All I want is a day from your life
I'm not asking you to be my wife
All I need is a friend for today
It's not because I'm feeling down
That I want you around
I just want to share the good times with
Someone who looks just like you
I'll write to you from wherever I am
We'll keep in touch just like we planned
I need more than a friend for today
The touch of your hand the look in your eyes
You ask no questions tell me no lies
I've found more than a friend for today
It's not because I'm feeling down
That I want you around
I just want to share the good times with
Someone who looks just like you
Honey I ain't never never never gonna leave you
That's true
Do you wanna know why
'Cause you're the dirtiest girl I've ever had
It's not because I'm feeling down
That I want you around
I just want to share the good times with
Someone who looks just like you
