

Prisoner

The Good Natured

Can you see me now?
I'm walking talking
But my hands are tied
I'm refusing to be
Physically confined

I'm a prisoner
I'm in captivity
I've begged and cried
For you to set me free
You have crossed the line

Run, running, running, run away
Just run, running, running, run away

When you look me in the eye
A dagger in my side
Tie me up and tie me down
Look, you've got me now

How I love it when you
Put me in a place
That's out of sight
I never see the day
Never see the light

I'm behind the bars
I'm sitting in the dark
A sudden change
I can't really explain
My bewildered heart

Run, running, running, run away
Just run, running, running, run away

When you look me in the eye
A dagger in my side
Tie me up and tie me down
Look you've got me now
Prisoner you've got me now
Prisoner you've got me now
Tie me up and tie me down
Don't you make a sound

I am yours, I must confess
A secret love that you possess
You locked my heart inside my chest

When you look me in the eye
A dagger in my side
Tie me up and tie me down
Look you've got me now
Prisoner you've got me now
Prisoner you've got me now
