

The Abandoned Castle Of My Soul

The Gothic Archies

I was young and impressionable
My morality questionable
When I happened to fall into a howling abyss
And I haven't hit the bottom yet

The abandoned castle of my soul
The abandoned castle of my soul
I was only seventeen when I lost control
In the abandoned castle of my soul

I reached out for anything white
With unspeakable appetites
Found myself in the lair of a killing despair
Now it's ten years on, and I'm still there

The abandoned castle of my soul
The abandoned castle of my soul
I was only seventeen when I lost control
In the abandoned castle of my soul

The abandoned castle of my soul
The abandoned castle of my soul
I was only seventeen when I lost control
In the abandoned castle of my soul
