Drop What I'm Doing

The Gourds

(Jimmy Smith)

Let me drop what I'm doing because I need you so

Oh I love you so

Let me sleep on it baby because I got to know

Whatever it is I can get I will provide for you yet

Just gotta tell me come clean synthesize a form of crude protein

Well we all had high pants and I was sitting on stolen code

38 pointed at my heart grenade pin in my teeth

Why do I have to be so opaque?

What me busy?

Hell no for Chrissakes

Sound reinforcement is what you need ain't my policy to impede

So now try to remember I can make rearrangements

Derail all my trains of thought and not get too pissed off about it
