

You May Be Right

The Grapes Of Wrath

Its been far too long,
you know I've never been a friend.
You can't see a thing
the more I try the less you know.
So don't ask what's wrong,
I'll tell you all the same things again
I'll tell you all the same things again
I'll tell you all the same things again

You may be right,
I don't want to see you tonight.
So don't call back,
I'll probably never see you again.
Don't ask what's wrong,
I'll try to make you understand
And tell you all over again
Tomorrow will be nothing then

No point of view,
depending on who you knew.
Take me out fast
I'll never let it happen again
So don't ask what's wrong,
I'll tell you all the same things again
I'll tell you all the same things again
I'll tell you all the same things again

It's been far too long,
I thought you're name was history
And then one day,
I saw your face in front of me
So don't ask what's wrong,
I'll tell you all the same things again
I'll tell you all the same things again
I'll tell you all the same things again

yeah yeah yeah right * 2nd line Chorus*
