

The Juggernaut

The Great Commission

Juggernaut.

I am unstoppable.

Crushing all opposition.

Destroying all that stands in my way.

On this path of destruction,

no one will stand in my way.

Your world is falling apart.

Your walls are falling down falling down.

Everything You've ever known is crashing down crashing down.

I used to think that I was unstoppable.

Nothing could stop me.

I was invincible.

Now one could judge me.

A blessed man is born twice and dies once.

A cursed man is born once and dies twice.
