

Shelter Of Your Arms

The Greenhornes

There's a storm growing
Growing all around
A snow is falling, it's covering the ground
Don't you walk away with your love
Don't you walk away now, I'm on my own Asking you to hear my pleas, I need the shelter of your arms
Wanting to spend my days in the shelter of your arms There's a sadness filling my heart and a silence it's tearing me apart
Don't you walk away with your love
Don't you walk away now, I'm on my own Asking you to hear my pleas, I need the shelter of your
arms
Wanting to spend my days in the shelter of your arms
Don't you walk away with your love
Don't you walk away now, I'm on my own Asking you to hear my pleas, I need the shelter of your
arms
Wanting to spend my days in the shelter of your arms Shelter of your arms, the shelter of your arms, the
shelter of your arms
I need the shelter of your arms
I need the shelter of your arms
