

Pet Shop Eyes

The Growlers

You got these pet shop eyes
But honey I'm not buying
You look so cute and seem so sad
Almost thought about crying

Well honey if you was mine
I'd give you a happy home
But I must leave you behind
I got a girlie on my own

Not sure that you'd get along
My girl could never betray
She wants me all to herself
And I got no reason to complain

Aaah Aaah

You got these pet shop eyes
But honey I must refrain
I'm in no position to buy
I'd better leave you to remain

You got these pet shop eyes
Honey I'm not buying
You look so pretty and so sad
Almost thought about crying

Aaah Aaah

Pet shop eyes, oh pet shop eyes
Tryin' to all the other guys
Your eyes don't lie

I like to dream about what happen
If I could put you on a chain
If I could give you my everlasting love
We could share the same name

You got these pet shop eyes
Honey I'm not buying
You look so cute and seem so sad
Almost thought about crying

Aaah Aaah
