Bye Bye Babe

The Guess Who

Bye bye, bye bye babe Bye bye, bye bye babe Bye bye, bye bye babe Bye bye, bye bye babe

If the local rock scene has gotten you down You got nowhere to go You better get up on a Greyhound bus Head down the road to T.O.

She got to take another chance Her last rock and roll chance

If your whole life has gotten you down You got nowhere to turn There's a correspondence course in the book Still things a young girl can learn

Bye bye, bye bye babe

You'd better trade in your box, sell your rod now, baby But I'm singing to you Bye bye, bye babe

Have a look in your comic book Have another look, you're sinking Bye bye, bye babe

Head down the road, look for a slimy toad Nothing in your head you woman Bye bye, bye babe

Oh, bye bye, bye babe
