The Guess Who

Eye

An eye can be a world For in it are the things it sees outside and the eye is troubled.

An eye can be a time And watch the changing patterns hurry by And the eye is wisdom.

An eye can be a clown It makes a merry fool of merry fools And the eye is laughing.

An eye can be a soul For in it shines the hope for things to come And the eye is wisdom.