The Haunted

Love is stronger than all
We can cry and pretend
But we know there's something real

Some men say we're from the first breath to the last
You should carry your head high

Cause I'm done
Digging myself deeper
Done looking for escape
Done playing games
Your validation's not worth my time

Everything must die
You can't shake it
For all the pretty shameful games we played...
The sweetness of debauchery
Somehow left me cold & broken
Somehow left me thinking of you
Properly sedated, medicated, pliant and controlled
Finger-likin' hooker-tricks
Won't get you very far

Out here things are becoming real
Out here I found a way
To break the fear

I'm done digging myself deeper
Done looking for escape
Done playing games
Your validation's not worth my time
